Mariners are advised that until final works are complete on the Poole Lifting Bridge only one set of harbour traffic lights will be working on each side (Upstream/downstream) of the bridge.

During this period the green lights will not function.

Lights displayed will either be all red (vessels not to proceed) or red with amber (vessels proceed with caution).

Mariners are reminded of their obligation to comply with these traffic signals and to navigate with extreme caution when transiting the bridges whilst maintaining a good lookout.

Mariners are reminded that Radar, AIS, CCTV, telephone and VHF channels are recorded.
